

What Kind of Files to Submit

Entries that need to be photographed should be photographed from the front, rear, side, and any details that show the quality of work. Research papers, literary arts, and any other typed or digitally created entries should be submitted as a PDF file.

Please submit photos of all visible angles to be accurately judged.

Fine Art does not have to be matted but photographed against a solid black background. No frames or glass.

All files should be named with the description of your entry that matches what you wrote on your entry form.
