SONOMA-MARIN FAIR ANNOUNCES STAR-STUDED CONCERT SERIES JUNE 21-25, 2023

PETALUMA, Calif. (April 21, 2023) -- The Sonoma-Marin Fair proudly announces its annual concert series featuring top-name artists and bands from various genres. This year's Fair will take place from June 21-25, 2023, and will include performances by some of the biggest names in the music industry and up-and-coming acts. The fairgrounds will buzz with excitement as concertgoers gather to enjoy this fantastic showcase of musical talent. Tickets to the concert series and carnival rides are free with Fair admission.

The multi-platinum-selling band Switchfoot will take the stage on Thursday, June 22. Known for their alternative rock sound and hit songs like "Dare You to Move" and "Meant to Live," Switchfoot has been making music since the late 90s and has amassed a large following of dedicated fans.

The multi-platinum country artist Randy Houser will take the stage on Friday, June 23. Randy Houser has established himself as a powerhouse vocalist with an unmistakable sound that has earned him critical acclaim and legions of fans. His Stoney Creek Records album, How Country Feels, produced three consecutive No. 1 hits and has sold over four million singles. Houser's hits include "Runnin' Outta Moonlight," "Goodnight Kiss," and the Top 5 smash hit "Like A Cowboy," a nominee for CMA Song of the Year.

Saturday, June 24, will feature the talented Gavin DeGraw, known for his soulful pop sound and hits like "I Don't Want to Be" and "Not Over You." DeGraw's dynamic vocals and energetic stage presence will create an unforgettable experience for fans.

In addition to these headliners, the fair will feature a diverse lineup of other talented artists. Pride & Joy will perform on Wednesday, June 21, bringing their high-energy mix of soul and Motown hits. And on Sunday, June 25, the Fair will conclude with performances by Banda Poterero, Sonora Santanera, and La Gran Sonora, all representing Latin America's rich culture and music.

"We're thrilled to bring such a talented group of performers to our fairgrounds this year," said fair spokesperson Tawny Tesconi, CEO of the Sonoma-Marin Fair. "With such a diverse lineup, there's something for everyone, and we can't wait for our community to come together and enjoy these incredible concerts."

New this year is a "pit pass" to access an exclusive area right at the stage for a close-up dance experience. Pit passes are limited and cost an additional $25.

Tickets for the Sonoma-Marin Fair include the concert series and are available now. Pre-sale tickets cost $22 for adults, $15 for kids and seniors, and little ones under four years old are free. Wednesday, June 21, admission is only $18.
