*This Year's Medieval Theme will Delight Kids and the Affordable, All-Inclusive
Tickets will Delight Parents*

PETALUMA, Calif. (Feb. 14, 2023) – The Sonoma-Marin Fair returns to the Petaluma Fairgrounds June 21 – 25, 2023 with a medieval theme that will engage kids and families throughout the fair. Tickets are on sale now and are all-inclusive “pay one price” carnival included. Pre-sale tickets cost $22 for adults, $15 for kids and seniors, and little ones under 4 years old are free. Wednesday, June 21 admission is only $18 all-inclusive for all ages.

“The Fair truly has something for every member of the family, and our pay-one-price tickets sets us apart from other local fairs. “ said Tawny Tesconi, Fair CEO.

One ticket provides access to all the fun the Fair has to offer including concerts, unlimited carnival rides, soft and furry animals, livestock, action-packed Pit Stop USA Sprint Car Racing, fun games, and contests, kid fun, and let’s not forget the delicious fair food!

Get ready for a rockin’ 5 days of award-winning music with an outstanding lineup of bands to be announced in March.

The official Fair Guidebook will be released on April 1st and all events will be listed on our website: <https://www.sonoma-marinfair.org>.

The World’s Ugliest Dog® contest, a nationally renowned event will be held on Friday, June 23rd. Contest applications are now available on the website.

Gates will open for the Fair at 3:00 pm on Wednesday - Friday, June 21st - 23rd, and at noon on both Saturday and Sunday, June 24th and 25th. Parking is $7 and is cash-only.
