

Press Contact:

Maureen McElroy

marketing@sonoma-marinfair.org

707.490-5079

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sonoma-Marin Fair Announces Impressive Turnout of Exhibitors

PETALUMA, CALIF (July 3, 2023) – The Sonoma-Marin Fair is excited to announce the overwhelming participation of talented exhibitors in this year's event. The fair, renowned for showcasing the best of agriculture, youth development, and community engagement, has seen a remarkable number of competitors across various categories.

In the Livestock category, we are proud to announce that an impressive total of 210 competitors entered with an astounding 1,101 entries. These dedicated participants have put forth their best efforts in raising and showcasing their livestock, demonstrating their commitment to excellence in animal husbandry.

Additionally, the Youth Still Exhibits category saw an outstanding response with 337 competitors entering a grand total of 1,467 exhibits. These young exhibitors have poured their creativity and talents into their submissions, showcasing their skills and passion across various disciplines.

The Adult Still Exhibits category has also witnessed a remarkable turnout, with 187 competitors presenting an impressive array of 721 entries. The fair provides a platform for adults to display their expertise and craftsmanship, and these exhibitors have certainly raised the bar with their exceptional contributions.

Overall, the Sonoma-Marin Fair has witnessed an incredible display of talent and enthusiasm, with a total of 734 exhibitors and a staggering 3,289 exhibits. This remarkable participation underscores the fair's commitment to fostering growth, learning, and community engagement through agricultural showcases and youth development programs.

Tawny Tescony, Fair CEO, expressed her excitement about the record-breaking participation, saying, "We are thrilled to see such a tremendous turnout of youth and adult exhibitors at this year's Sonoma-Marin Fair. The dedication and hard work exhibited by our competitors is truly inspiring. It's a testament to the passion and commitment of our community, and we are proud to provide a platform for these talented individuals to showcase their skills. We look forward to another unforgettable fair experience and celebrating the achievements of our exhibitors in 2024."

The Sonoma-Marin Fair extends its sincere gratitude to all the participants, their families, and the dedicated agricultural youth for their unwavering support and contributions. Their hard work and commitment to excellence truly embody the spirit of the fair.

For more information about the Sonoma-Marin Fair and its upcoming events, please visit www.sonoma-marinfair.org.

About Sonoma-Marin Fair

The Sonoma-Marin Fair is an annual event that celebrates the rich traditions of agriculture, youth development, and community engagement. With a focus on showcasing livestock, arts, and crafts, as well as providing entertainment for all ages, the fair aims to bring together communities and foster a sense of appreciation for rural heritage. For more information, visit www.snonoma-marinfair.org.

###