With over-the-top performances that engage the audience and often make them part of the show, no two Wonder Bread 5 shows are the same. Performing a never-ending stream of new and up-to-date material while always remembering the party anthems from their youth. Wonder Bread 5 delivers rock and dance hits throughout their sets and keep the dance floor packed all night long.

Get ready to be swept away by LANCO on Friday, June 21st. Brandon Lancaster, the frontman of this platinum-selling band, is here to remind us that while country music often paints a picture of fantasy, LANCO embraces the raw, unfiltered truths of everyday life. From triumphs to setbacks, they capture the essence of the human experience with a sound that's evolved yet unmistakably LANCO. Their latest release promises to be a powerful reflection of their journey, filled with anthems that speak to the highs and lows we all face. So, get ready to lose yourself as LANCO takes you on a journey through the realities of life, love, and everything in between.

Experience the timeless charm of Easton Corbin on Saturday, June 22nd, as he brings his signature blend of traditional and modern country music to the stage. With over a decade of captivating audiences with his unforgettable baritone, Corbin's recent signing to Stone Country Records marks the beginning of an exciting new musical journey. From his chart-topping hits like "A Little More Country Than That" to his latest single "Marry That Girl," Corbin's neotraditional sound continues to captivate hearts and ears alike. Don't miss your chance to witness this country music icon live in concert, where he'll showcase a collection of new tunes and beloved classics, promising an evening filled with authentic country vibes that will leave you wanting more.

Fiesta Latina: A Celebration of Latin Music and Culture

The Sonoma-Marín Fair is proud to present Fiesta Latina on Sunday, June 23rd, a vibrant celebration of Latin music and culture. The fairgrounds will come alive with the infectious rhythms of Lalo y Los Descalzos, Los Traviesos de La Costa, and Rosío y Su Sonora. Get ready to dance the night away to these talented artists' pulsating beats and captivating melodies.

Lalo y Los Descalzos has performed in South America, especially in Paraguay, Bolivia, Argentina, Europe, Spain, and many more. His first record success was a Spanish version of Stevie Wonder's song "I Just Called to Say I Love You".

Los Traviezos De La Costa Musical Group that began in 1998 in Copala Guerrero Mexico, Playing Versatile music such as Cumbia, Ranchera, Salsa and Merengue formed only with 3 Members. Currently based in the United States since 2009 already with 8 recorded albums and also already visiting different States in the American union, working for its Latin American public.

Rocío and Su Sonora was born in the Country of Eternal Spring, Guatemala City. Due to circumstances, she began working with the Sonora Caliente and then joined the well-known Sonora Dinamita de Lucho Argáin in 2002. Rocío decided to create her own Sonora and that's where the group was born: Rocío y su Sonora, which has led her to share stages with artists and groups of recognized trajectory.

Live Music During the Day

The Sonoma-Marín Fair will also have live music around the grounds and on the Kiwanis Stage. Don't miss the daily ambiance of steel drums by Salsa Steel. On Saturday, June 22nd, Outlaw Mariachi takes the stage while The Pitchforks perform on Sunday, June 23rd.
